Extra Effort —

Accompanying Exercises Included in all Teacher Materials

EXTRA EFFORT

Extra effort is an approach to critical thinking, investigating a narrow topic, researching and studying the evidence, and communicating conclusions. These are quick exercises linked to a unit in the worktext, usually completed within one class period. There are currently 12 “Extra Effort” exercises with more to be added; check our website periodically for updates. Here is a sampling of the current topics:

- Political Cartoons
- Should there be Age Limits?
- Weaknesses of the Articles
- Your 1st Amendment Rights
- Voter Engagement
- Dive into the Preamble
- Violations of the Bill of Rights
- Declaration of Independence
- Analyze our Founding Documents
- Which House has More Power?
- Washington Farewell Address
- Analyze Declaration Painting

Our Constitution, Your Citizenship

Our Constitution, Your Citizenship is a concise 64-page guide to efficiently study United States Citizenship and the new state-mandated curriculum. This enhanced tool provides insight into the subjects covered in the naturalization test given by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Give your students much more than the answers; give them a solid foundation in our founding principles and framework for government. This guide will help prepare students for the citizenship test and ensure they have a solid understanding of the essential concepts in American democracy. The content includes American history, American government, and a civics assortment of American holidays, symbols, and geography.

This book shares some of the concepts related to the federal constitution from our other publication, “Our Federal and State Constitutions.” This worktext is designed for students of all abilities and may be used in a wide range of classrooms (from middle schools to high schools to adult education).

Pricing: $5.95 each for orders of 20 or more student copies and $7.50 each for 1-19 copies. Shipping is $0.40 per worktext with a $6.00 minimum.

(student worktext > ISBN 978-0-931298-06-6)

Teacher Guide & Materials: FREE for orders of 20 or more student copies and come with a testing program that includes a 25, 50, and 100-question test, a copy of the latest government officials, a copy of the United States Constitution, and miscellaneous handouts and exercises. $7.50 each for orders of less than 20 student copies.
